I have a grave concern about the proposed Broadcast Flag, or and industry inspired encoding that would require me to buy new technology to copy for privae use.

Once this technology is in place for commercial programming, how will it be prevented from being used on all commercial programming? Including "Public Affairs" and "News".